Ethel Reha had concerns about her bill. Due to a water leak we'll average out her last bills since the leak and recalculate from there.

Banners for downtown were discussed. We decided to go with the same type as last time, and go with the Display Sales company. Angie will get more designs as well as updated pricing on these.

Asphalt bids were tabled until next month due to no bids received.

Paul gave a monthly treatment plant update.

There being no further business, Connie motioned and Jeremy seconded to adjourn. A roll call vote was taken, this motion passed with all in favor and the meeting was adjourned at 7:24pm.
